

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

FLAT RIVER

Miss Ida Mae Kennedy returned to St. Louis Sunday, after spending a week here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kennedy.

Ira Eaton of Bismarck was a Flat River visitor Tuesday evening.

G. W. Sweet was a business visitor in St. Louis the first of the week.

Ralph Hancy visited relatives near Libertyville Tuesday evening.

Leo Covington and Harold Brand of Bonne Terre were guests of friends here Tuesday.

Miss Selma Sample of St. Louis visited friends here the first of the week.

Miss Frances Tetley of Farmington was a Flat River visitor Wednesday.

Miss Ada Strauss, who teaches in the high school here, spent the weekend at her home in Webster Groves.

Paul Moran of Bonne Terre was a Flat River visitor Sunday.

Wilbur Akers of Farmington was a Flat River visitor Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Thompson were St. Louis visitors last week.

Milton Tucker of St. Louis spent the Thanksgiving holidays here with his parents.

Mrs. G. B. Williams and daughter, Nellie, were shopping in Farmington Saturday.

Miss Orene Hise of Desloge was the guest of friends here Sunday.

Mrs. L. E. Pierson and little son of Detroit came here Monday to spend a few weeks visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Haney.

Ira Eaton of Bismarck was a Flat River visitor Sunday.

The Sophomores had a class party last Saturday night at the Domestic Science hall, Misses Viola McGee and Gertrude Heller, two of the teachers, were chaperones. Refreshments, consisting of home-made candy, cake and ice cream, were served. Games were played and enjoyed by all. Those present were: Misses Pauline Rinke, Vida Tucker, Ruth Webb, Iva Hancy, Ruth Silvey, Mary Burns, Leona Cox, Violet Fowler, Katy Detchemendy, Ruth Wade and Ethel Deguire; Messrs. Edwin and William Bennett, James Armbruster, Clarence Fraiser, Marvin Sigman, Tom Johnson, Tom Horton, Hubert Thomason, Austin Spray and Fred Silbey.

Bill Sachs and Jimmy Hardy of Desloge were Flat River visitors Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Williams and Misses Iva Hancy, Vida Tucker, Nellie Williams, Elizabeth White, Allena Nalle, Mary Olive Marsh and Marianna Cecil, and Tom Johnson, Floyd Hise, Albert Karsch and Brabson Cecil attended the basket ball game at Farmington last Thursday night. The score was, Perryville 21, and Farmington 18.

Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Haney and son, Ralph, and daughter, Iva, were shopping in Farmington Saturday.

R. C. Detchemendy is working in St. Louis.

Miss Lydia Spray left Monday for Cape Girardeau to spend a week attending a Christian church convention.

The Flat River football team played their last game of the season here last Tuesday with Desloge. It resulted in a score of 32 to 0 in favor of the home team. Much credit is given Coach Shultz for the team that was put out here this season—it never met a defeat. They have scored 163 points against their opponents' 6, which was Perryville.

Miss Mary Detchemendy returned home Sunday from St. Louis, where she spent a few days shopping.

Percy Tucker and Bryan Coffman, who are attending the Illinois University, spent Thanksgiving here with home folks.

The Flat River foot ball team played the Southeast Missouri All-Stars on the National field Sunday afternoon. They were under the impression that they were to play the Desloge team until a few minutes before the game was called, when four Farmington men arrived in foot ball garb. The All-Star team scored a touch-down by accident during the first half. The Flat River team scored one also in the third quarter. The score was a tie—7 to 7. The All-Star team consisted of four Farmington men, one man from DeSoto, one from Charleston, one from Cape Girardeau and the remainder from Desloge. Flat River was represented by members of the Alumni and a few H. S. Stars.

Miss Gladys Toffleson of Leadwood was a Flat River visitor Friday night.

Miss Bessie Moser was a Farmington visitor Tuesday.

Earl Scott, Martin Wolfner, Clyde Burns and Geo. Karsch were among those attending the football game at Farmington Thursday.

Miss Vida Tucker was hostess Saturday night to the basket ball girls and football boys. The party gathered early and enjoyed dancing until late, when dainty refreshments of fruit, punch and cake were served. Those present were: Misses Allean Nalle, Minnie Goldstein, Nellie Williams, Iva Hancy, Mariana Cecil, Alice Marsh and Elizabeth White; Hubert McAnnally, Brabson Cecil, Ralph Hancy, Willis Deguire, Tom Johnson, Jeff Matkin, George Rohrbach and Albert Karsch. They departed at a late hour, declaring Miss Vida a delightful entertainer.

Miss Edith Leadbetter was a St. Louis shopper last week.

Misses Florence Mitchell and Ruth McAttee and Earl McAttee and Eddie Effrein of Farmington attended the foot ball game here Sunday.

Elvins and Festus high schools played a double-header basket ball game here Friday night. The Elvins boys and Festus girls won the games.

Alec Hawn, Warren Belknap and Herbie Radle were Flat River visitors Sunday.

Farrell Burns, Oran Murphy, Ralph Hancy, "Fatty" Thomason, Clyde Burns, Pete Cooper, Red McAnnally and Bob Burns attended the foot ball game at Farmington Thursday.

Mrs. Emmett Sutterfield and little son, Douglas, of Detroit are visiting her mother, Mrs. R. Thomason.

Dr. Hawkins, representative of the Washington University, made his annual visit here this week.

Mrs. Leo Moran of Libertyville returned home Tuesday, after spending a few days here with her sister, Mrs. T. L. Haney.

Miss Iva Eaves of Desloge was the guest of friends here Wednesday.

LEADWOOD.

Dr. J. D. Morris, formerly of Leadwood, but now of St. Louis, was visiting friends here Saturday and Sunday.

John A. Sizemore of St. Louis was visiting relatives and friends in Leadwood from Friday to Sunday.

R. C. Baker and Fred Mayberry, were hunting near Bismarck Saturday.

Rev. J. W. Ham, our Methodist Minister left Monday for Piedmont, Mo., to help in a revival meeting for the next two weeks.

William McClard had the misfortune of getting his right arm broken last week by his car back firing while trying to start his car.

Mitchell Mines closed down last Friday which caused a lot of men to have to hunt a new job. And the St. Joseph Lead Company layed off one shift in the mill here and are now only running two eight hour shifts. They are fast getting back normally, as Mr. Harding calls it.

H. L. Stapp and Prof. J. W. Reaves were hunting out near Irondale Thanksgiving.

Equitable Lodge No. 364 K. of P. elected the following officers last Friday night for the ensuing year: Lynn Walsh, C. C.; Thos. A. Harper, V. C.; H. S. McFarland, P.; R. C. Baker, M. of W.; J. T. Simms, M. of P.; Fred Hicks, M. of E.; J. C. Fields, K. of R. and S.; Wm. Jahncke, M. and A. E. L. McFarland, I. G. S.; S. E. Williams, O. G.

Prof. J. P. Hargrove visited relatives at Ellington Thanksgiving.

Mart Stewart of Bonne Terre was visiting his daughter, Mrs. C. H. Kirkpatrick, Sunday.

Prof. M. W. Baker and family of Bismarck called on friends here Friday.

Miss Mary Ware, who teaches in the public schools here, visited relatives at Fredericktown from Thursday until Sunday.

Miss Mildred Keith, principle of our High School, visited her sister, Miss Mary, from Thursday to Sunday, at Columbia, Mo.

Mrs. Jessie Campbell and Miss Gladys Frazier were visiting in St. Louis during Thanksgiving vacation.

Miss Lela Hill visited friends in Ironton the latter part of the week.

Mrs. J. H. Calvert of Ironton is visiting her son, Rev. C. E. Calvert, pastor of the Baptist church here.

Miss Lou Christian of St. Louis is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. E. Calvert, here this week.

J. P. Spence of Bonne Terre was transacting business here in Leadwood Monday.

R. H. Ramsey and J. F. Beckler returned from St. Louis Sunday, where they had been visiting relatives and friends for the past week. Mr. Ramsey reports having had one of the finest visits of his life, having met so many friends that he had not seen for many years and having been treated so well.

M. L. Owens and wife of St. Louis visited relatives and friends here the past week.

Miss Theresa Henderson and Miss Zoe Adams were visiting relatives at Belgrade from Thursday to Sunday.

We are informed by a member of the school board that they expect to try and let the contract for the new high school building about the middle of January.

Austin Hall, who has been spending a two-weeks vacation, returned to his job as supply clerk for the St. Joseph Lead Co. at Leadwood.

W. O. Vinyard and family were visiting out of town the latter part of last week.

ELVINS

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edmond of Fredericktown came here Friday to visit relatives. They went to Flat River Saturday to visit the latter's sister, Mrs. Harley Harper, returning home Sunday.

Percy Pelate was a Bonne Terre visitor Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Norris and children went to French Village Sunday and spent the day visiting relatives.

Joe Byers and Dock Degrant went to Three Rivers Tuesday hunting. They returned with 21 rabbits and 10 quails.

Wm. Rolens of Three Rivers came here Thursday of last week and spent Thanksgiving with his mother, Mrs. Mary Rolens.

Julia May, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Teafar, is on the sick list.

Clarence Bess of St. Louis came here Saturday to visit relatives. After visiting his mother in Fredericktown, he returned to St. Louis Sunday.

Grover Cooksey went to Bonne Terre Saturday and spent the day visiting his mother, Mrs. W. E. Cooksey.

Mrs. Jennie Nelum was guest of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cooksey, Saturday.

Mr. Wilkerson, who has been employed in Annapolis, returned here the first of the week to visit home folks.

Three of Mose Sebastian's children are on the sick list.

Miss Lilly Wood went to Bonne Terre Tuesday to visit relatives.

H. A. Miller returned from St. Louis Tuesday, after a visit with relatives.

Louis Cooksey of Bonne Terre came here Monday to visit relatives.

Raymond Pressley, who has been on the sick list for several weeks with typhoid fever, is improving.

Mrs. Martha Cromer returned to her home near Doe Run Monday, after a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Mary Brown, and her brother, Wm. Moore.

Miss Josie Weiss of Doe Run returned to her home Sunday. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Ralph Turner, and little daughter.

Little Mildred Vandergriff, who has been real sick with pneumonia, is very much improved.

Little Leta Brown, who has been on the sick list for the past two or three weeks, is much improved at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Bart Crawford returned Sunday, after several days visiting with their daughter, Mrs. Chatman, near Doe Run.

Mrs. George McClary and children spent Thanksgiving with her sister at Leadwood.

Mrs. Frank Woodruff was a Farmington visitor Friday.

Mrs. Fred Baker is on the sick list.

Mrs. Jim Crawford is on the sick list.

VALLES MINES

Mrs. A. P. Rowe and children spent Wednesday and Thursday in Bonne Terre.

Miss Ethel White of Festus visited her parents here Thursday.

Mrs. Ferman Richardson and son visited at the home of N. Burns of Flat River Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Decker and children visited at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Monroe Nash.

A. P. Rowe visited at the home of his father, R. H. Rowe, Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Statzel of St. Louis visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Statzel.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rhodes and children visited at the home of W. E. Heaton Thursday.

Earl Hawk of Festus visited his mother, Mrs. Dell Hawk, Thursday.

Edw. Heaton of St. Louis is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Heaton.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Statzel of St. Louis visited Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Heaton Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Elsie Heaton visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Statzel Saturday.

Mrs. Effie Turley visited at the home of Mrs. Green White Friday.

Mrs. Gertrude Riddle visited at the home of Frank Quata Thursday.

Mrs. Samuel Skaggs visited at the home of Robert Cain Friday.

Miss Glen Harris of Festus visited her aunt, Mrs. Gus Frazier, Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Riddle visited her son, James, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Merlin Hawk visited Miss Gertrude Riddle Tuesday.

Miss Gustine Turley visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gussie Frazier Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Whitezel and daughter, Mrs. Leo Coleman, were DeSoto visitors Thursday.

Several from here attended the shooting match at Matt Nussbaumer's Friday night.

Miss Elsie Heaton was guest of her sister, Mrs. H. C. Rhodes, Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Ben Nash visited at the home of Monroe Nash Tuesday.

Those from here attending the dance at Flucum were: Edw. Heaton and Bud Riddle. They reported a good time.

Mrs. Henry Finney and children of Bonne Terre visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Rowe, a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gentry Larkin of Festus visited her parents a few days last week.

Elmer Moon was a Festus visitor Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Harley Donwoody and daughter, Lizzie, visited relatives at Silver Springs Sunday.

Misses Olga and Elsie Heaton visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Green White Saturday.

Harvey Rowe was a Bonne Terre visitor Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Emma Scott of Festus is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Green

FARM BUREAUS OF NATION START WAR ON PRICE DECLINE

President Jim Howard, of the National Farm Bureau Federation, invited the brains of the nation to attend the first called national convention of his organization at Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 6, 7 and 8. An attempt is to be made to overcome the low-price level for corn, wheat and cotton by a new marketing arrangement. One million three hundred thousand farmers will be represented.

White Thursday and Friday.

Fenton Thurman visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Heaton Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Finney, who has been visiting relatives, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Statzel and daughter, Mabel, who have been visiting home folks, returned to their home in St. Louis.

Misses Olga and Elsie Heaton were Valles Mines visitors Sunday.

Henry Turley visited at the home of Pete Turley Sunday.

Miss Irene Dames visited Miss Thelma Horne Sunday.

Urel Hammock visited at the home of C. W. Shannon Sunday.

Lewis Thurman, who has been working in Detroit, has returned to his home.

Miss Gertrude Cresswell of Bonne Terre visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Thurman Thursday.

Edw. Heaton visited at the home of his sister Sunday.

Raymond and Preston Polite visited at the home of Henry Turley Sunday.

Wm. C. Heaton was a DeSoto visitor Tuesday.

Miss Merlin Hawk visited Miss Octavia Riddle Tuesday.

Miss Mabel and Howard White visited at the home of Mrs. Effie Turley Sunday.

Miss Branche Rawson of Bonne Terre, who has been teaching the Valles Mines school, resigned Monday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. James Riddle, on Nov. 27th, a daughter.

Miss Gertrude Riddle was guest of Miss Merlin Hawk Thursday.

Misses Beffel and Uta Hawk visited at the home of Mrs. Effie Turley Sunday.

Roy Crutcher visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Statzel Thursday.

Miss Clara Douglas visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Heaton Tuesday.

ROUTE 3

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Vaughn and sons, Allen and Paul, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Watts, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wade, Mrs. Nellie Brown and little daughter, Roberta, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Johnie Boyd of Minnith.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wade spent Sunday afternoon with relatives on this route.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Coffey and daughter, Jennie, were Flat River callers Sunday afternoon.

Burl Harter spent Saturday night with relatives in Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Gordon spent Sunday afternoon with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gordon.

Paul Boyd, Marvin Allen, Willie Gordon and Carroll Wade spent Sunday with Elmer Herman.

J. H. Feezor lost a fine horse last Wednesday night.

Mrs. J. H. Feezor and Mrs. Jennie Cowley returned home last Saturday, after spending a week with relatives near Morley, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Smith spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Gordon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Griffin spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Haynes and daughter spent Sunday with "Aunt" Vine Bowling.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Miller spent Thanksgiving with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Hammors.

Mrs. Ed Nessel and daughter, Susie, spent from Friday until Sunday with relatives on this route.

Willard Young of St. Louis spent a few days recently with his sister, Mrs. Ed McDaniel, of this route.

CROSS ROADS

Americus Tucker had a sale at his home last Saturday, which was a success.

J. B. Dines of Fredericktown was here Saturday on business.

Mrs. Oda Wright of near Rockcreek spent the week-end here with her father.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Hicks and daughters motored to Fredericktown last Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ozro Tucker of Esther attended the sale at his brother's home here Saturday.

Dr. Anthony of Fredericktown made a professional call at the home of Mr. Tesreau last week.

Will Kiepe of Libertyville was in this community last Monday.

Josie Pirtle is staying at the home of her uncle, Albert Pirtle, of Castor.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Hawthorne of Womack passed through here last week enroute to Fredericktown.

Mr. Albert Buckingham has been reported on the sick list the past week.

Beulah Day of Fredericktown spent the past week with relatives here.

Rev. Kennon held church services at the Church of God last Sunday, morning and evening.

Will Umfleet spent Thanksgiving day with friends on Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Green and family of Bonne Terre spent the week's end with her parents.

Will Dines of St. Louis spent Saturday here with friends.

Mr. Bruce and daughter of Fredericktown spent a few hours Sunday evening at the home of Mr. Leverenz.

Mrs. Pirtle and Kennon of Mine La Motte attended services here last Sunday.

Stella Sands spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Will Pirtle of near Rock Creek.

Charles Tesreau was reported to have been resting better for the past few days.

Mrs. Frank Barron and daughters of Rock Creek spent Saturday night with her father and family.

G. B. Perkins of Sprott was in this community last Monday on business.

Mrs. Cora Holliday and three children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bequette.

Lalla Watts spent Sunday evening with her friend, Viola Umfleet.

Miss Mathews of Fredericktown was here Monday on business.

LIBERTYVILLE

The Rawleigh medicine man was in this community this week.

Chas. Scott was reported seriously sick the first of the week.

Rev. Andrews of Fredericktown preached two very interesting sermons at the M. E. Church here Sunday morning and evening.

F. L. Graham, H. W. Crow and C. F. Detring unloaded a carload of corn at Knob Lick this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Tillman of St. Louis and Mrs. Chas. Coffman and little daughter of Coffman spent Thanksgiving here with the latter's sister, Mrs. Ralph Tillman, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Kinkead were shopping in Farmington last Saturday afternoon.

James Shaw of Montana is here visiting his mother and brother.

Rev. R. L. Allen will preach at the Christian church next Sunday morning and evening. All are cordially invited.

The Sunday school of the Christian church here are going to have a program and Christmas tree on Christmas Eve.

PRIMROSE

L. S. Williams transacted business in Bonne Terre Saturday.

Virgil Cash of near Big River was guest at the home of Lass Cash one night last week.

Mrs. Hoelzel of Melzo was shopping in Bonne Terre Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy of Moon-town motored out to Bonne Terre Saturday.

John Pettos was a business visitor in Bonne Terre Saturday.

Mrs. Annie Cash and little son, Albert, were guests at the home of Wm. A. Moon the latter part of last week.